BJPS RAMBUNCTIOUS READING ROLLERCOASTER

To celebrate the wonderful world of books, we have decided to have a week dedicated to the enjoyment and sharing of books, to coincide with a visit from the Book Fair. You are invited to come into school with your children at 8.30 am each day (any or all!) of the week and sit and enjoy reading together – read anything: books from school, books from home, comics, newspapers – anything goes! The children will be taking part in our 'Drop Everything and Read' incentive throughout the week and we will be announcing the winner of our 'Story Explorers' competition. It's set to be a great week so please come and join us!
