

Our EYFS Aims and Principles

Aims What?	Principles Why?	Key actions to achieve these. How?
To be 'Ready for Anything', prepared for life long learning and a love for coming to our school.	To teach children to be independent enquirers, self managers, creative thinkers, team workers and reflective learners here at Burton Joyce Primary School.	Through a tapestry of provision, experiences and teaching that promotes 'Ready for Anything' learning behaviours.
To know the importance of our PRIDE values and demonstrate these values in all aspects of life and learning.	To teach children to show positivity, respect, integrity, determination and equality as they grow and develop with us at Burton Joyce Primary School	To model our PRIDE values and nurture children with Positivity, Respect, Integrity, Determination and Equality.
To start building a foundation of knowledge about our world.	We want our children love learning about our world, to have a thirst to learn more about the people and places in it.	With a rich, broad and balanced curriculum that teaches powerful knowledge.