

Our EYFS Aims and Principles

Aims What?	Principles Why?	Key actions to achieve these. How?
To be 'Ready for Anything'.	To be ready for everything that Year 1 and the National Curriculum will offer children. To be ready to come to school happy, healthy and to learn.	Through provision, learning and teaching that promotes 'Ready for Anything' learning behaviours. Include Reception aged children in the whole school curriculum and activities so they start to feel part of our community.
To know about our school's PRIDE values and begin to show these values in the school day.	To teach children to show positivity, respect, integrity, determination and equality as they grow and develop with us at Burton Joyce Primary School	To model our PRIDE values and nurture children with Positivity, Respect, Integrity, Determination and Equality.
To start building a foundation of knowledge about our world and be ready to start Year 1.	We want our children love learning about our world, to have an interest in learning more about the people and places in it.	With a rich, broad and balanced curriculum that teaches powerful knowledge needed to succeed in Key Stage 1.
