

Golden Threads (substantive concepts) at BJPS

	Civilisation: A civilization is a large group of people who share certain advanced ways of living and working.
	Conflict: A strong disagreement or bad feeling between people (groups of people).
	Democracy: A form of government. The word comes from Greek words that mean 'rule by the people'.
	Empire: A group of nations or people under one ruler or government.
	Enemy: A person (group of people) who dislike/ hate another person (group of people) and wants to harm them.
	Invasion: An instance of invading a country or region with an armed force.
	Ruler: A person who leads.
	Migration: movement of people to a new area or country in order to find work or better living conditions
	Monarchy: government by or in the name of a king, queen, or similar ruler, whose power may be strong or limited.
	Parliament: A group of people who make the laws for a country.

	Peace: A state of freedom from war or conflict.
	Peasantry: A person that worked for others on a farm and had little money.
	Power: The ability to control or influence others.
	War: a state or time of armed fighting between countries, states, or other groups of people.
	Religion: A set of beliefs.
	Rules/ Law: A set of instructions and consequences that are made to help individuals and whole communities, live and work together without conflict.
	Settlement: The action of people coming together to live in an area.
	Slave: The practice of people owning other people as property.
	Society: A large group of people who share the same laws, rights and resources.
	Trade: The buying and selling of goods and services.
	Tribes: A social group made up of families, friends or generations that share the same culture, language and often occupation (job) with its own leaders and often living in a particular area.